The Secretary to Government,
Revenue Department
BANGALORE

In enclosing herewith the records relating to election of a non-official Vice-President to the Municipal Council Shimoga in the vacancy caused by the resignation of Sri Subbiah, I have the honour to state as follows

Sri Subbiah Vice-President of the Municipal Council resigned the office of the Vice-President Shimoga Town Municipality on 1-6-48 owing to pressure of domestic work. The President after accepting of resignation framed calendar of events on 1-6-48 calling for a special meeting on 18-6-48. The election was conducted on 18-6-48 and Sri V Vittoba Rao was duly declared as elected as he secured the highest number of Votes.

The report in detail received from the President and the proceedings relating to the election are herein enclosed for reference.

I solicit approval of Government to the election of Sri V Vittoba Rao as Vice-President as no objections have been received and needful notifications caused to be issued announcing the election of Sri Vittoba Rao.

I have the honour to be
